DCRB Circular No. 1056

To All Members of the DCRB:

RE: Appointment of Amy Quinn as President and CEO of DCRB

The Governing Board of the Delaware Compensation Rating Bureau (DCRB) is pleased to announce the appointment of Amy Benck Quinn as President and CEO Elect following a nationwide search. Amy will join DCRB on July 8, 2025, and will succeed William Taylor who will provide support during this transition as CEO emeritus.

Amy comes to DCRB as an experienced business executive with extensive background in the workers' compensation industry. Since 2021, Amy has been President of South Carolina Interactive, a subsidiary of Tyler Technologies. In that role, she collaborated with diverse stakeholders, including the State of South Carolina, to drive innovation, build relationships, and improve organizational outcomes.

Previously, Amy was a State Relations Executive at NCCI for fourteen years where she built relationships with key stakeholders, accomplished organizational objectives, and developed her deep knowledge of, and love for, the workers' compensation system. As Amy establishes a residence in the Philadelphia area and transitions into her role as CEO, please join us in welcoming her to the DCRB!

Along with announcing Amy Quinn as the new CEO, the Governing Board wishes to express our sincere appreciation to William Taylor for his outstanding leadership of the DCRB. Bill is well respected by his colleagues for his professionalism and the thoughtful influence he has had on the DCRB and PCRB, its members, and the workers' compensation community during his tenure. We wish Bill the very best in his retirement.

Sincerely,
